

PaymentsEd Forum

Join the Merchant Board

About PaymentsEd Forum

Since 1989, PaymentsEd Forum, a non-profit organization, has delivered premium educational opportunities and content that provides merchants with relevant insight into current card-not-present rules, regulations, processes, and best practices. The annual PaymentsEd Forum is the only industry gathering that is 100% dedicated to providing educational content directly to payments professionals by merchants.

Why Join the PaymentsEd Merchant Board?

Benefits

- High-level interaction and relationship building with merchants, acquirers, card companies, and service providers
- Enjoy high visibility as representatives of PaymentsEd in all meetings, communications, promotional materials, and the website
- Influence payment not present processing protocol and strengthen merchant education in this targeted market segment.
- Receive complimentary Forum attendance.
- Three quarterly in-person board meetings, board members are provided 2 nights of complimentary hotel rooms
- 1 night complimentary hotel for the Forum board meeting

Expectations

- 8 hours per month on committee work/board meetings
- Actively participate in the annual Forum
- Responsible for own travel to the Forum and in-person board meetings